ORDER

This matter is before the court on the motion for an extension of time by defendant Brandon Jackson (Jackson) (Filing No. 20). Jackson seeks additional time in which to file additional pretrial motions apart from his Motion to Suppress (Filing No. 18). Jackson has filed an affidavit wherein he consents to the motion and acknowledges he understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act (Filing No. 21). Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

Defendant Jackson's motion for an extension of time (Filing No. 20) is granted. Jackson is given until on or before September 9, 2016, in which to file pretrial motions pursuant to the progression order. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between August 15, 2016, and September 9, 2016, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

DATED this 15th day of August, 2016.
